

I am strongly against a few companies of any kind owning a majority of broadcast stations across the nation. It is imperative that diversity be observed in order to guarantee freedom of speech. It is difficult to fathom why anyone would even entertain or support this infringement of our precious right